Semi detached, Dolores

Semi detached with 3 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms in Dolores, Alicante.

The ground floor has very spacious living room with modern open kitchen with cooking island. From the living room you first enter an extra guest toilet. Then a spacious bedroom with walk-in wardrobe and a bathroom en-suite. Via a beautiful open staircase you enter the 1st floor. 1st floor: 2 spacious bedrooms with fitted wardrobes with en-suite bathrooms and access to a terrace. The property is sold fully furnished. Dolores is located south of Alicante and is a real Spanish traditional village, with around 7,500 inhabitants. Because it is more inland, but only 15 minutes by car from the most beautiful beaches of La Marina Playa and Guardamar del Segura, you have beautiful mountain views and experience more of the real Spanish life. Dolores has all the amenities to make your stay complete, such as restaurants, bars, shops, supermarkets, a medical centre, various sports facilities, town hall. It is an active municipality where many festivities are organised. Of course, a weekly market can be found in the centre of Dolores, it is every Friday morning. Even though it is a typical Spanish village everything can be found to make your life as pleasant as possible. In addition, Dolores is known as being a very quiet, social and safe village below Alicante. The A7 motorway gives you a perfect and very fast connection (even in high season) with the rest of the province of Alicante and Murcia. And you have the possibility of using 2 airports, besides Alicante airport you can also use Murcia airport.
