Villa, San Miguel de Salinas

Villa with 6 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms in San Miguel de Salinas, Alicante.

This extraordinary villa is located in El Galan urbanization (Blue Lagoon), which is a quiet and friendly residential area, yet it is within walking distance of amenities and a short drive to various beaches.

This villa offers everything for those who need to unwind. The large roof terrace offers beautiful views down to La Manga. Having two separate entrances, this property is ideal for either a large family or for two families who require privacy at times. There are three levels with a bathroom on each, six bedrooms in total with three bedrooms containing a double bed and three bedrooms containing two single beds. There are no uncomfortable sofa beds in this villa.

The El Galan extraordinary villa has a private swimming pool with wide walk-in steps at one end and reaching 6ft depth at the other. The pool can be accessed either by steps down from the middle level of the property or by steps down from one of the garden gates. There are plenty of recliners, tables and chairs within the garden area and a variety of palm and fruit trees. There is also a brick-built barbecue with a seating area which overlooks the swimming pool. As well as on-street parking, the house has a private driveway. The big solarium offers sea views and La Manga views.

A few minutes away is the famous Villamartin Plaza with over 30 bars and restaurants where you can also find ten-pin bowling, pharmacy, banks and mini-market. From here, buses also run every hour to the beaches and to Torrevieja.

The region offers things to do for all ages and interests. Torrevieja is just a 20 minute drive away with its fabulous
