Bungalow, Orihuela Costa

Bungalow with 2 bedrooms and 1 bathroom in Orihuela Costa (Playa Flamenca), Alicante.

This 58 m² top floor bungalow with mezzanine and solarium offers a unique opportunity in a privileged coastal location. Despite its modest size, this property has a lot of potential and offers a lovely base from which to create a personalized space. Built in 1997, this bungalow is located in a strategic location a few kilometers from the sea on the popular beach of Playa Flamenca, in the province of Alicante, southern Spain.

The bungalow has a simple but functional distribution. When accessing the first floor, it is accessed through a small balcony, very charming for summer nights in Spain.

DISTRIBUTED:

FIRST FLOOR

Two bedrooms, the open layout allows natural light to flow in and be distributed more efficiently.

American kitchen is integrated with the dining room, creating a feeling of spaciousness. The kitchen offers opportunities to renovate and modernize, creating a functional and pleasant space.
